

WINTER ARC – Exam Preparation Roadmap (30 Days)

Challenge Overview

The Exam Preparation track is designed to support students preparing for any competitive, academic, or entrance exam. This track is completely exam-agnostic and focuses on building consistency, effective study habits, revision cycles, and performance analysis.

30-Day Exam Preparation Plan

- Day 1: Identify exam, syllabus, and target timeline
- Days 2–3: Create a realistic study plan and daily routine
- Days 4–6: Learn new topics from your syllabus
- Day 7: Weekly revision and short test/quiz
- Days 8–10: Continue learning new topics with daily practice
- Day 11: Revision day for previously studied topics
- Days 12–13: Strengthen weak concepts and doubts
- Day 14: Weekly mock test and analysis
- Day 15: Midway performance review and strategy update
- Days 16–18: Learn fresh topics from syllabus
- Day 19: Practice questions and accuracy improvement
- Day 20: Sectional test or topic-wise test
- Day 21: Weekly revision and error analysis
- Days 22–24: Mixed practice and concept reinforcement
- Day 25: Full-length or major mock test
- Day 26: Detailed analysis of mock test
- Days 27–28: Focus on weakest areas
- Day 29: Light revision and confidence building
- Day 30: Reflection and next-phase preparation plan

Daily Submission Rules

- Upload a short summary of topics studied each day.
- Mention practice questions or tests attempted.
- Share key mistakes or concepts learned.
- Consistency is valued more than study hours.

What to Share Daily

- Topics or chapters covered
- Number/type of questions practiced

- Mock or quiz scores (optional)
- One improvement insight for tomorrow

Strategies to Win the Exam Prep Track

- Follow active learning instead of passive reading.
- Revise weekly to avoid forgetting.
- Analyze mistakes deeply after every test.
- Adjust strategy based on performance trends.
- Stay consistent and avoid burnout.

Fair Play & Discipline

- Submissions must reflect genuine preparation.
- Fake study logs or copied test scores are prohibited.
- Respect academic honesty at all times.
- Matrix reserves the right to revoke XP, ranks, or rewards.
